

2019 Global Investments in Cervical Cancer Prevention Programs

SUBTITLE HERE

Tom Harmon

January 28, 2021

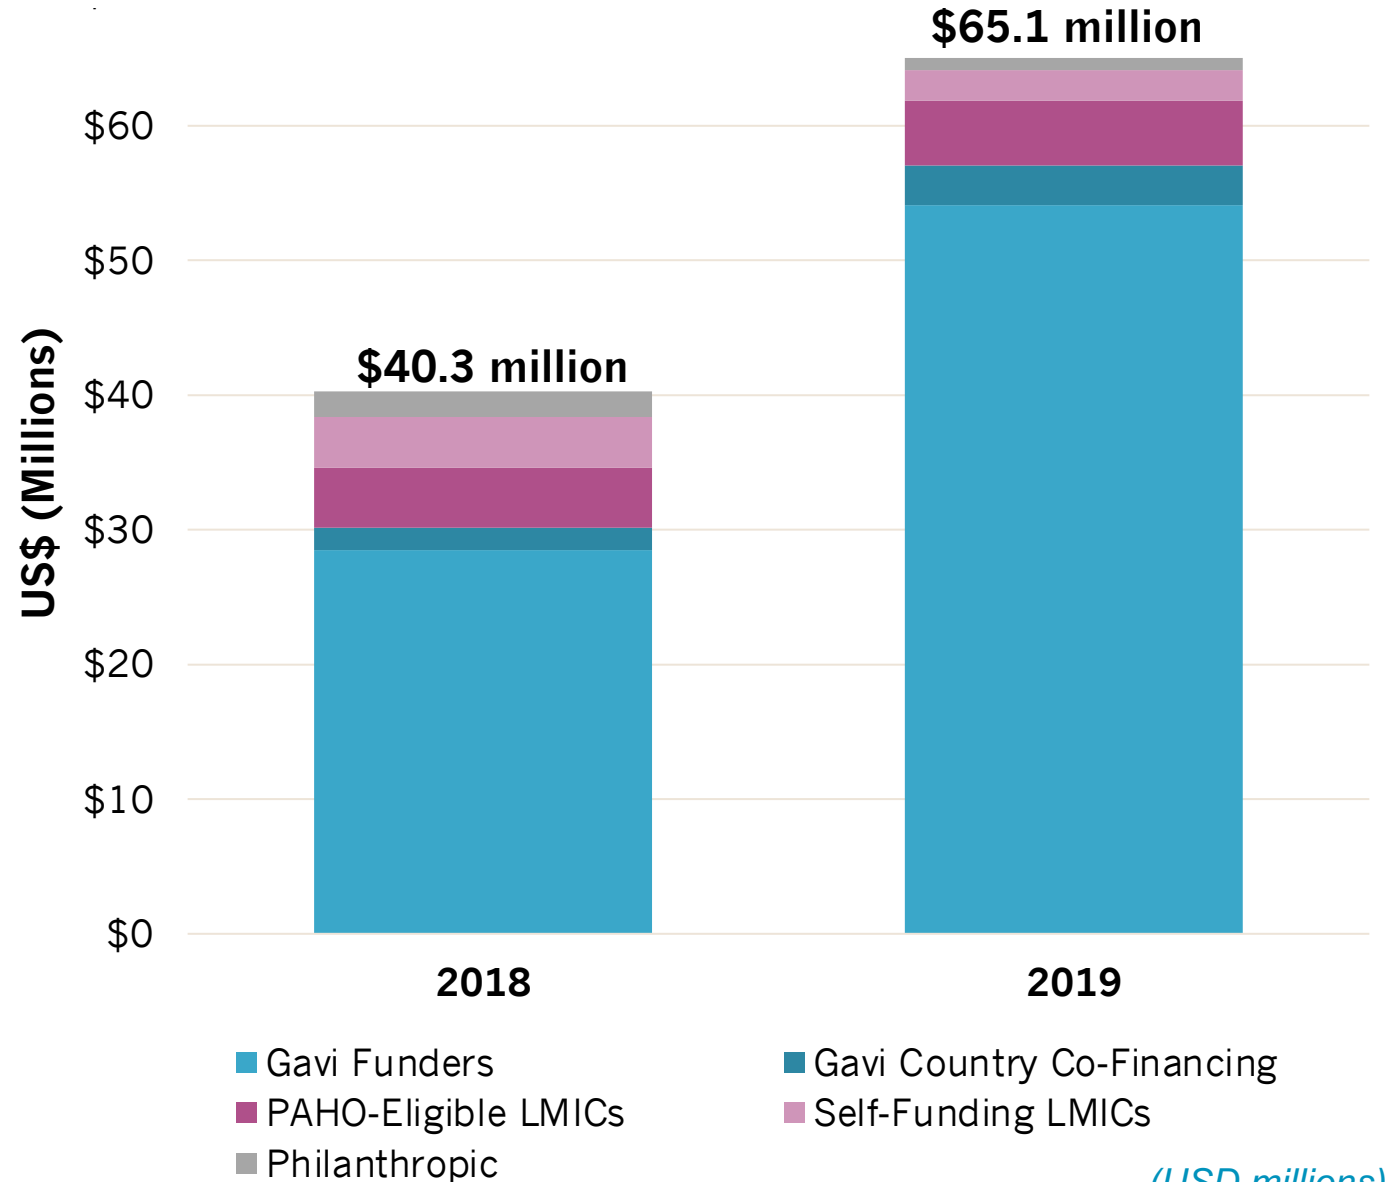

TogetHER's Global Funding Report

- Highlight trends in global investments for HPV and cervical cancer prevention programs using publicly available data sources (reports, press releases, databases)
- Does not include research funding or funding for cervical cancer treatment
- 2018 & 2019 reports can be found at togetherforhealth.org

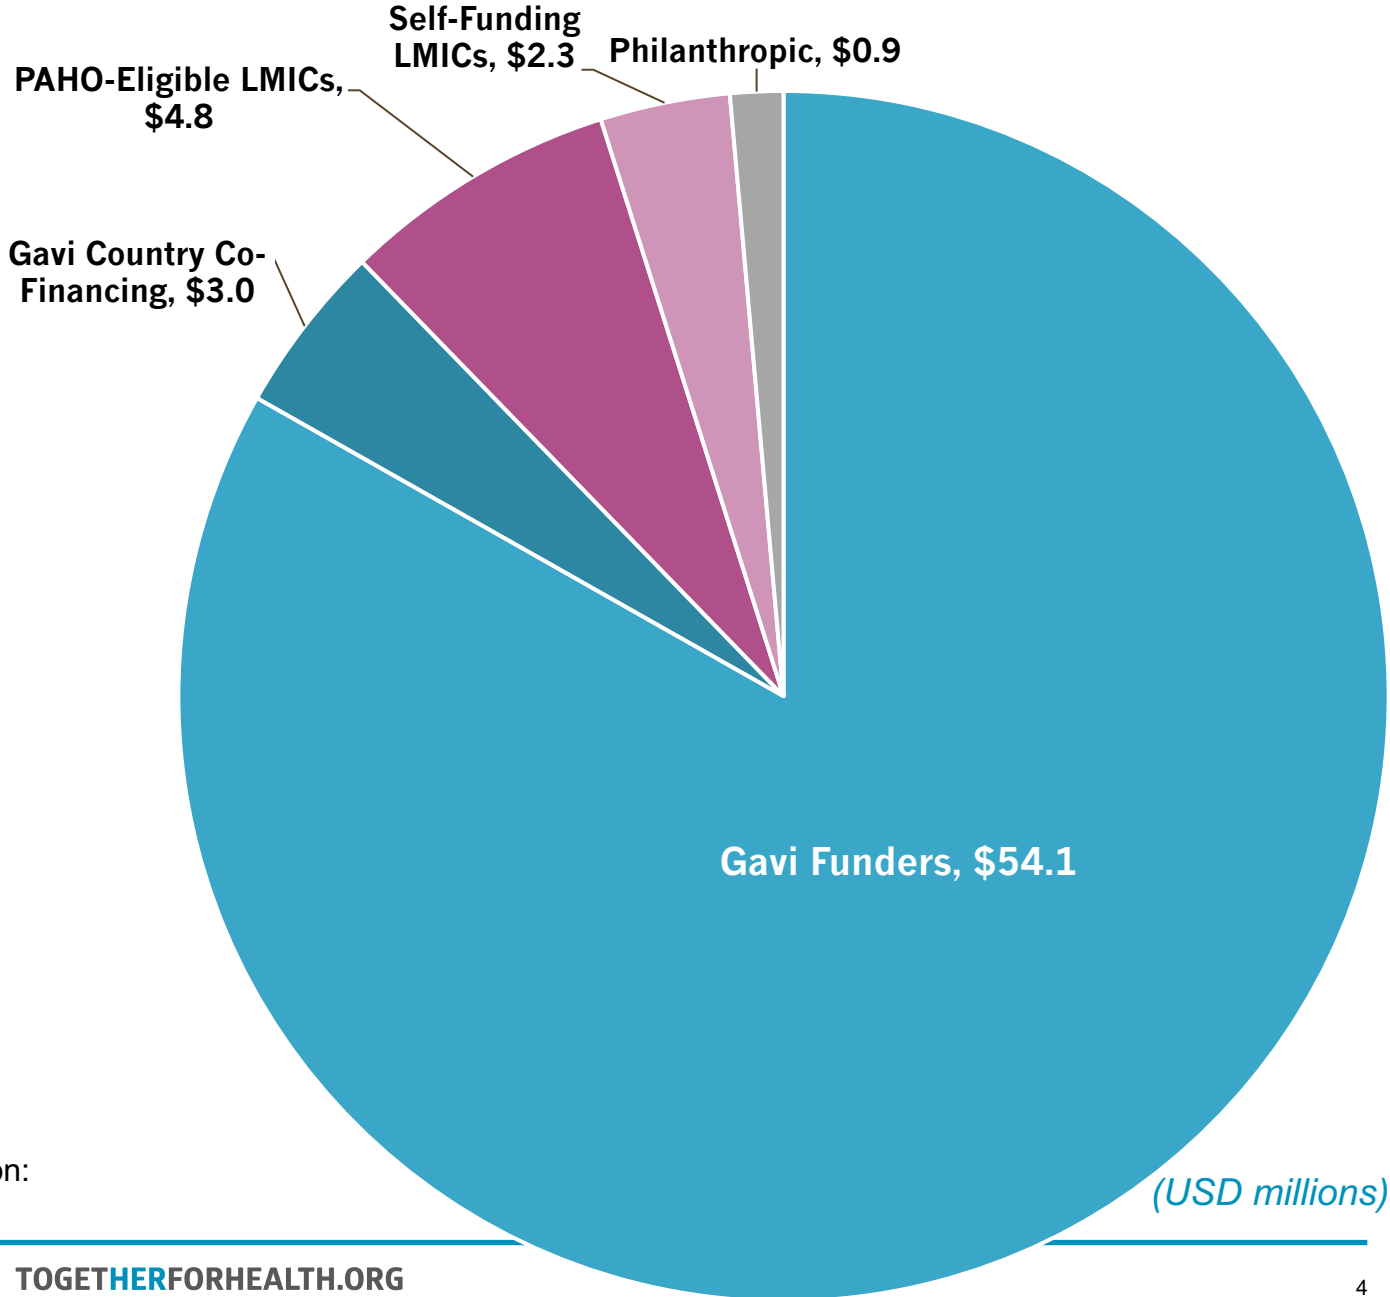

Support for HPV Vaccine Programs in LICs and LMICs increased by 61.5% in 2019.

- Increase in Gavi funding for HPV Vaccine programs
- Increase in Gavi country co-financing

(USD millions)

Support for HPV Vaccine Programs in LICs and LMICs totaled $65.1 million in 2019.

(USD millions)

TogetherHER for Health. (2020) Investing in Global Cervical Cancer Prevention: Resources for Low-Income and Lower Middle-Income Countries in 2019

Support for Cervical Cancer Screen-and-Treat in LICs and LMICs increased by 148.7% in 2019.

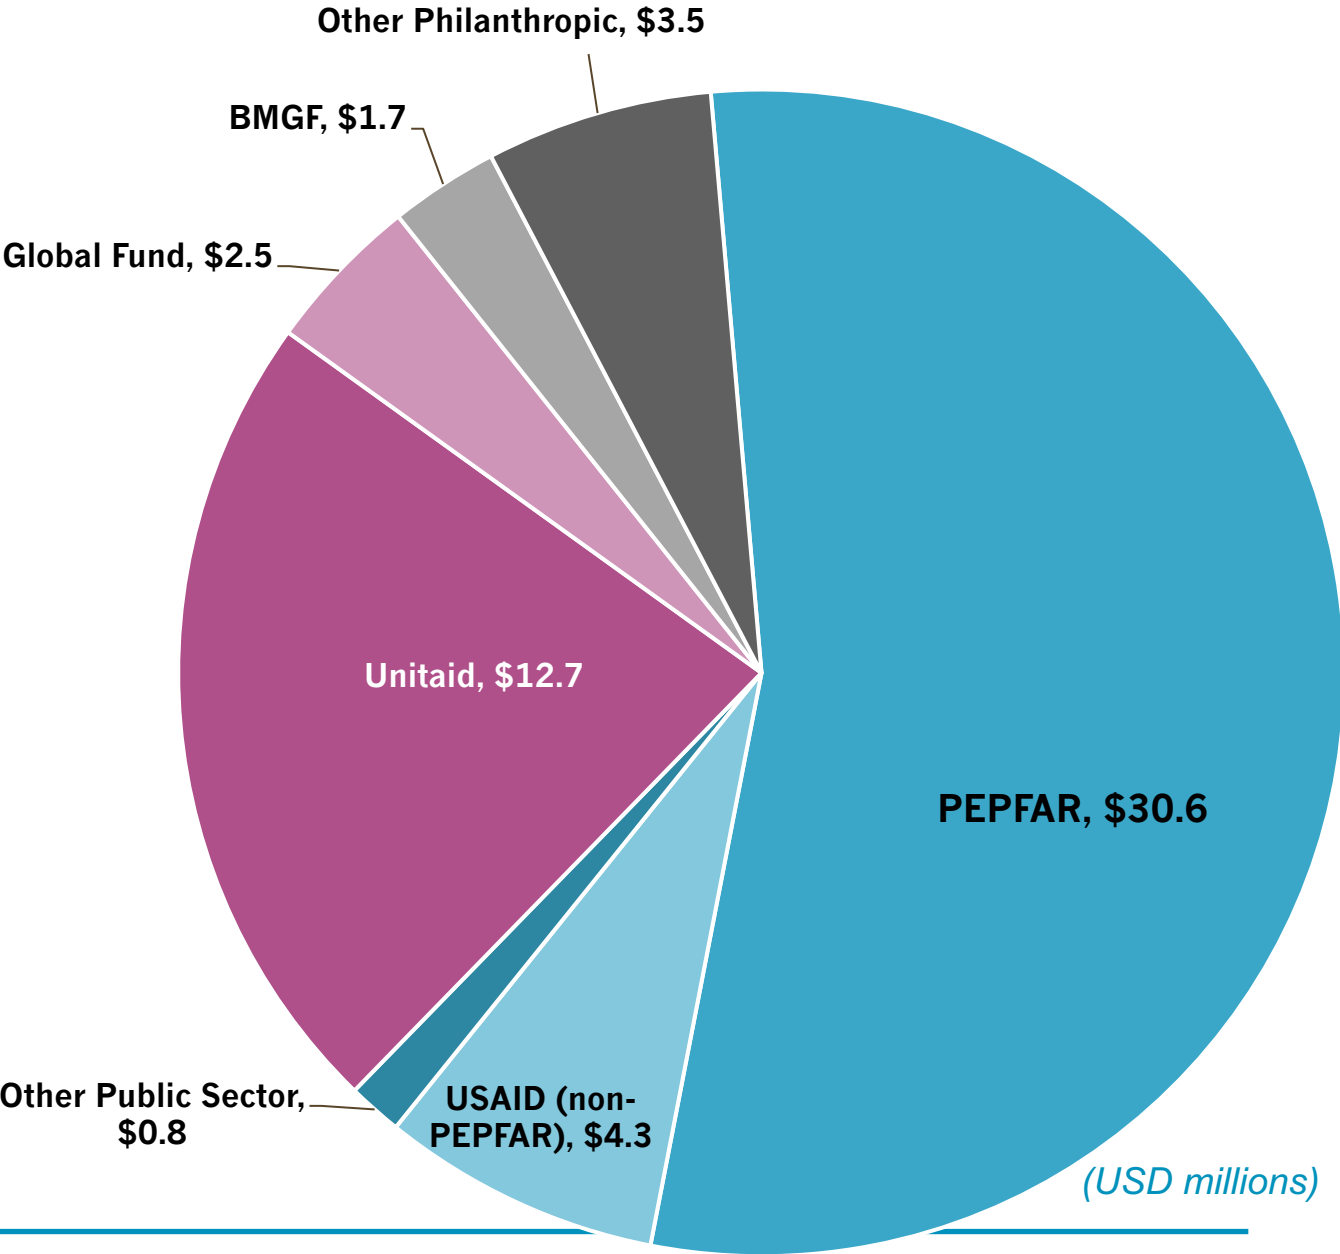

- Increase in PEPFAR financing (Go Further program scale-up)
- 5x increase in GFATM investment
- New investments by Unitaid and USAID

TogetHER for Health. (2020) Investing in Global Cervical Cancer Prevention: Resources for Low-Income and Lower Middle-Income Countries in 2019

(USD millions)

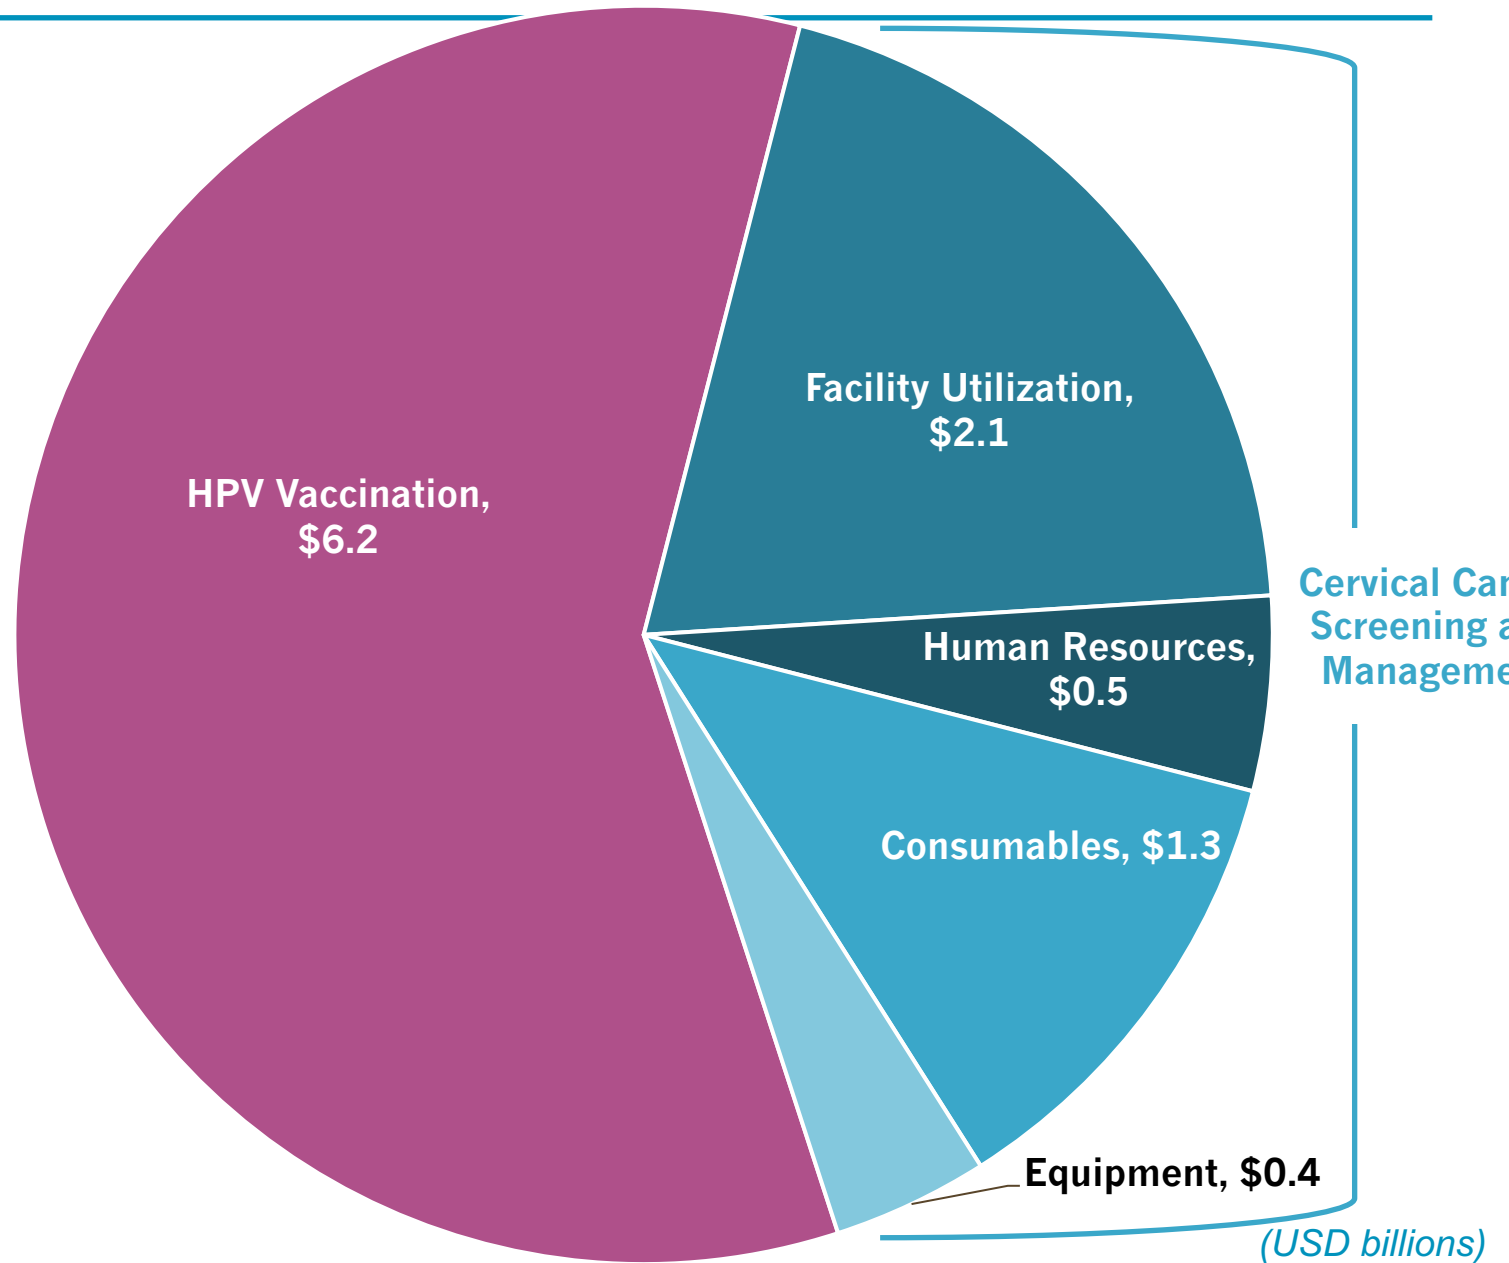

Support for Cervical Cancer Screen-and-Treat Programs in LICs and LMICs totaled $56.2 million in 2019.

(USD millions)

TogetHER for Health. (2020). Investing in Global Cervical Cancer Prevention: Resources for Low-Income and Lower Middle-Income Countries in 2019.

Estimated $10.5 Billion Resource Need for Cervical Cancer Elimination in Low- and Lower Middle-Income Countries, 2019-2030

Bertram et al. The investment case of the cervical cancer elimination strategy in low and lower-middle income countries. In publication.