

WOMEN DELIVER?

NOT WITHOUT A

CERVIX

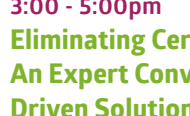

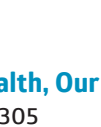

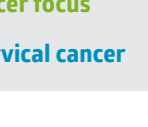

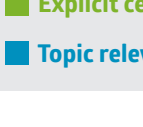

WOMEN DELIVER 2019

Cervical Cancer Roadmap

TOGETHER
for health

#notwithoutacervix

Event Title Key:

TOGETHER event

Explicit cervical cancer focus

Topic relevant to cervical cancer

SUNDAY, JUNE 2ND

2:00 - 5:00pm

Generation Now: Our Health, Our Rights

Pre-Conference, Room 301-305

3:00 - 5:00pm

Eliminating Cervical Cancer in Low-Resource Settings: An Expert Convening to Create Recommendations for Locally Driven Solutions to Eliminate Cervical Cancer

Side Event, Room 306

An expert convening and workshop with policy makers, health care providers, multilateral agencies, NGOs, private sector representatives and advocates on eliminating cervical cancer.

6:00 - 8:00pm

Not Without a Cervix: Advocating for an Effective Cervical Cancer Response

Side Event, Room 217

See what cervical cancer programming looks like on the ground, from new technologies to easy integration within reproductive health programs. Attendees will discuss ideas to increase cervical cancer's visibility at Women Deliver and beyond.

MONDAY, JUNE 3RD

9:30 - 11:00 AM

Women at the Center: The Power of Partnering with Communities to Strengthen Health Systems

Side Event, Room 223-224

3:00 - 5:00 PM

What Works: Using Evidence from the World's Largest Family Planning Programs to Reach Global Goals

Side Event, Room 118

TUESDAY, JUNE 4TH

6:30 - 8:00 AM

From Global Movement to Local Action: Gender and SRHR within Universal Health Coverage

Side Event, Room 116-117

8:30 - 10:00 AM

The Power of Now: Taking Stock of Where We Stand and What Opportunities and Challenges Lie Ahead

Plenary, Plenary Hall

10:30 - 12:30 PM

Everybody's Business: Universal Health Coverage in Sub-Saharan Africa

Concurrent Session, Room 206

12:00 - 1:30 PM

Re-Thinking Women's Health: Gender-Based Innovative Science for Integrated Health Systems

Concurrent Session, Room 213

Join us to re-appraise the global community's approach to women's health through a gendered lens. We will discuss critical women's health issues, such as cervical cancer.

1:30 - 2:30 PM

Integration Matters: Advancing the Lives of Girls and Women Through Holistic Programming

Concurrent Session, Room 306

1:30 - 2:30 PM

Getting it Right: Family Planning and HIV Services

Concurrent Session, Room 114-115

3:00 - 4:00 PM

Ensuring Quality of Care Throughout the Life Course for Girls and Women

Concurrent Session, Room 301-305

Speakers who are at or represent different stages of life will present solutions to ensuring quality care throughout the life course.

4:30 - 5:30 PM

PROGRESS: Deborah Birx, MD, Ambassador-at-Large and United States Global AIDS Coordinator

Power Talks, Power Stage, Fueling Station

5:00 - 7:00 PM

Beyond 2020: The Future of the Global Family Planning Partnership

Side Event, Room 213

5:00 - 7:00 PM

Private Sector Impact for Women and Girls: Models that Make Good Business and Social Sense

Side Event, Room 118

6:00 - 6:30 PM

Women's Health

Film Screening, Film Festival Lounge, Fueling Station

Includes the film:

Fanny Garcia: A Cervical Cancer Survivor (Bolivia)

8:00 - 10:00 PM

Every Country Can Eliminate Cervical Cancer

Side Event, Room 205-207

Learn about prevention, early detection and management of cervical cancer; brainstorm on building integrated, women-centered services; share experiences on reaching all girls and women.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5TH

6:30 - 8:00 AM

Transforming Health Care Through Self Care: Agency and Power In SRHR

Side Event, Room 211

10:30 - 12:00 PM

Investing in Impact! Sustainable Financing for Women, Adolescents, and Girls

Concurrent Session, Room 217-219

This session will explore the successes and challenges of sustainable financing and will include discussion of HPV vaccination efforts.

10:30 - 12:00 PM

Ending Mental Health Stigma and Discrimination

Concurrent Session, Room 208-209

12:00 - 1:30 PM

Stepping Up for Women and Girls

Concurrent Session, Room 306

1:30 - 2:30 PM

Women, Aging and Sex

Concurrent Session, Room 116-117

3:00 - 4:00 PM

A Global Health Tsunami: Non-Communicable Diseases

Concurrent Session, Room 306

Participants will engage in conversation and facilitated discussion to learn how addressing NCDs can significantly improve the health and well-being of not only women and girls, but also men and boys of all ages.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6TH

6:00 - 8:00 AM

Powering Change: United for Women's, Children's and Adolescent's Health

Side Event, Room 217

This event will identify cross-sectoral approaches that address inequities, with an aim to improve health outcomes and empower women and girls as agents of change. HPV and cervical cancer will feature in the discussion.

10:15 - 12:00 PM

Power Talks: Health

Power Talks, Power Stage, Fueling Station

10:30 - 12:00 PM

Power of Community: Advocates for the Rights of Older Women

Power of Community Session, Room 214

12:00 - 1:30 PM

Power Talks: Insights

Power Talks, Power Stage, Fueling Station

Includes a talk by Dr. Kaosar Afasana focused on addressing preventable diseases like cervical cancer in Bangladesh.

1:30 - 2:30 PM

The Power of Momentum: What's Next on the Trajectory Towards Gender Equality

Plenary, Plenary Hall

5:00 - 7:00 PM

Count Me In: Ensuring Equitable Access to Cervical Cancer Prevention Interventions in Low- and Middle-Income Countries

Side Event, Room 211

This event will discuss global experiences, share ideas and engage in dialogue on the WHO Call to Action and prevention interventions for cervical cancer in low- and middle-income countries.

5:00 - 7:00 PM

What would it take for the Province of British Columbia to Eliminate Cervical Cancer?

Side Event, Room 221-222

This session will talk about what steps are required for British Columbia to leverage provincial infrastructure to eliminate cervical cancer in this province in the next 50 years.

Speak up during Women Deliver and let your voice be heard!

TWEETING AND BLOGGING FROM THE CONFERENCE?

Be sure to use #notwithoutacervix on social media to make clear that cervical cancer prevention is an essential part of equitable and comprehensive healthcare for women!

TOGETHER
for health

togetherforhealth.org